

Neuere Entwicklungen im Europäischen Asylrecht

Reform des GEAS – Aktueller Stand

Salzburg, 28. Januar 2019

A STRONG COMMON EUROPEAN ASYLUM SYSTEM

Different treatment encourages secondary movements and asylum shopping

We need a more humane, fair, coherent and efficient European Asylum policy

The European Commission tabled proposals to:

Simplify, clarify and shorten the asylum procedures

Harmonise criteria for protection and standards for beneficiaries

Harmonise reception conditions

Determine the responsible Member State

Ensure necessary fingerprint evidence is available

Establish an EU Resettlement Framework

Make the European Asylum Support Office a genuine European Asylum Agency

STRONG ADDED VALUE

Each new law will have an added value on its own

EURODAC

- better identification
- better tracking
- more effective returns

Asylum Agency

- full operational support
- greater convergence
- monitoring implementation

Qualification

- greater convergence of recognition rates
- protection when and as long as it's needed
- stronger integration incentives
- firmer rules for sec movements, improved security
- better protection for families and minors

Reception

- adequate reception
- reception in a single MS
- firmer rules for sec movements
- earlier access to work
- better protection of children

Resettlement

- first EU legal framework for resettlement
- greater impact of EU resettlement efforts
- flexible and built on voluntary participation
- predictable timelines and clear rules

Asylum Procedures

- simpler asylum procedure
- common guarantees
- stricter rules to prevent abuse
- common rules on safe countries

STATE OF PLAY

Ready to be concluded:

- Eurodac
- European Asylum Agency Regulation
- Qualification Regulation
- Receptions Conditions Directive
- Union Resettlement Framework Regulation

Important progress but compromise still needed:

- Asylum Procedure Regulation
- Dublin Regulation

The Commission is supporting both co-legislators to find common ground so that an overall compromise can be found and the entire asylum reform concluded.

Danke für Ihre Aufmerksamkeit!