 - From 2013 until 2014 she also served as Interim Professor of general education studies at the University of Erlangen-Nuremberg

Research

Adopting a historical-systematic perspective and employing a paradigm derived from cultural studies, Sabine Seichter investigates general anthropological phenomena, functional as well as ontological relationships of education and bildung, and ethical fundamentals of pedagogical professionalism. At the heart of her research and teaching, however, is always the person as actor as well as recipient of educational processes and bildung.

Editorship

In addition to numerous monographs, articles in handbooks and lexicons, multilingual articles in renowned peer-reviewed journals,

- Sabine Seichter has, in cooperation with a German and a Chilean colleague, coedited a textbook for future teachers and majors in education studies (“Projekt Erziehung”, Schöningh-Verlag Paderborn 2008, 4th ed. 2015, 5th ed. 2017);
 - since 2006 she is, in cooperation with colleagues from German, Swiss, French, and Austrian universities, on the Board of Editors of a book series in education studies “Erziehung – Schule – Gesellschaft” (Ergon-Verlag Würzburg);
 - in 2009 (Hardcover) and 2011 (Paperback Edition) she has co-edited (in cooperation with 120 invited authors from all over the western world) the Encyclopedia “Hauptwerke der Pädagogik” (“Major Works of Pedagogy”) (Schöningh Verlag & UTB Paderborn);
 - in collaboration with Winfried Böhm: Wörterbuch der Pädagogik (“Dictionary of Pedagogy”) (UTB Paderborn 2017, 17th ed.)
 - moreover, since 2013 she is serving as a scientific advisor on the board of the multilingual, international, peer-reviewed journal “Rassegna di Pedagogia,” published in Rome, Italy.
 - since 2017, she is member of the editorial board of the journal “Pädagogische Rundschau” (“Educational Review”),
 - also since 2017, member of the Scientific Advisory Board of the journal “Engagement”
