Congratulations on coming to Salzburg!

Did you know?

- Ø Salzburg used to be an independent country but was annexed by the Austrian Empire in 1816.
- Ø Salzburg is home to the largest beer hall in Austria. At "Augustiner Bräu" monks have brewed beer for nearly 400 years. You can enjoy the beer, bring your own food and relax in the vaulted hall and beneath chestnut trees. They are very effective in repelling mosquitos and wasps.
- Ø Salzburg is famous for special sweets – "Mozartkugeln". They are chocolates made with layers of nougat and pistachio marzipan filling. You will find them everywhere and you can't leave town without eating one (or two, or 100).
- Ø Are you familiar with "Sound of Music"? No? Well, congratulations, that is something you've got in common with the locals.
- Ø Salzburg is a city that stirs emotions. Love and hate for this city are deeply felt and tend to find quite colourful expression. Thomas Bernhard vividly illustrates this in his famous quote: "The Salzburgers were always as horrible as their climate, and nowadays everything is even more horrible". Others take it from quite a different angle: "Salzburg is the heart of Europe. In the middle of Europe there is no place more beautiful- and right here, Mozart had to be born!" (Hugo von Hofmannsthal).
- Ø While it might be true that Salzburg has London's weather and Paris' unfriendly waiters, it also has Vienna's charms and the miniature version of Rome's architecture. And nature. Lots of beautiful nature. Whether you want to go hiking or just spend a lazy day at one of the green oases within the confines of this town, Salzburg offers it all at virtually no cost.

Essentials to Studying

Important personal information
Matrikelnummer (enrollment/matriculation/student NR)	This number can be found on your ID card. We highly recommend that you memorize it and always carry your card on you.
User number ("s0000000")	This number enables access to online services such as PLUSonline, Blackboard (e-learning) and your email account.
E-Mail	Please check your account regularly (i.e. at least in the morning and evening). Changes to course schedules, cancellations and other important information will be sent to you via email. Sometimes you will receive automatically generated mails – do not ignore them!
Password	This password is for all logins. For your first login, you will receive an automatically generated password. You can change it afterwards.
Identification card	You will be asked to present your ID or provide your "Matrikelnummer" regularly. The card's validity also needs to be updated every semester at the devices found in most university buildings.

- PLUS-Login and PLUSonline

PLUS-Login (Paris Lodron Universität Salzburg Login) is a single-sign-on (SSO) portal for all online services, apps and other resources provided by the university. You can use it to access your email account, apps such as Blackboard (the university's e-learning app) and LimeSurvey, to set up your WiFi connection with Eduroam, or even to send files through "myFiles" and many more!

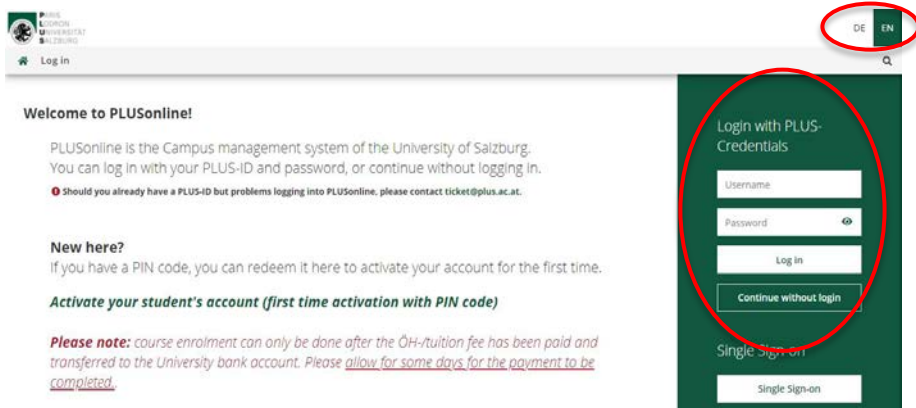

➤ <https://login.sbg.ac.at/>

PLUSonline is another app you can access through PLUS-Login. It is the internal online system of the university for students and staff. There you register for courses, look up rooms, your grades and pay your fee. You can find a link to PLUSonline on the top left corner on the website of the university. You can access PLUSonline by either logging into PLUS-Login and choosing PLUSonline or logging into PLUSonline directly.

➤ https://online.uni-salzburg.at/plus\_online/

To log into SSO or any of the apps – such as PLUOnline – you will need your account number. This is not your “Matrikelnummer” but a separate number (s0000000) you receive once you have registered for your studies (see “Important personal information”). Additionally, you also need the password you received when you registered. If you wish to change the language, you can do so at the top right corner of the page.

PLUOnline is the Campus management system of the University of Salzburg. You can log in with your PLUS-ID and password, or continue without logging in.

Should you already have a PLUS-ID but problems logging into PLUOnline, please contact ticket@plus.ac.at.

New here?
If you have a PIN code, you can redeem it here to activate your account for the first time.

Activate your student's account (first time activation with PIN code)

Please note: course enrolment can only be done after the OH-tuition fee has been paid and transferred to the University bank account. Please allow for some days for the payment to be completed.

Important: Once you are logged in, you can pay your tuition fee. Please stay on top of your fee, since the university will only remind you once. It must be paid in time every semester, otherwise a small compensation fee is added to the bill. (Check the deadlines on PLUSOnline!) If you do not pay your fee, you will be exmatriculated! Ideally, you should pay a week early to make sure you do not miss the registration dates for courses. You can only register for courses after the university has received your payment.

- Course registration

After checking the curriculum (take a look at the EUS Study Guide!) you need to find the matching courses and register for them. First, log in to your PLUSOnline account. Next, look for the buttons pictured in the following screenshot.

“Course Directory” will lead you to a search page for all courses offered at the university. It is recommended that you search by course number, as it will give you the best result. You can also search by course title, name of teaching staff and other filters.

“My Studies” provides an overview of the courses required to complete your degree. This is especially useful if you are attending more than one degree programme, or if you would like to complete your mandatory classes before choosing your electives. You can also use this button to see the whole curriculum for your degree and which classes you may take to fulfill the requirements as dictated by the curriculum. (The example below is taken from MA Political Science.)

Pay close attention to the ECTS. In general, they give you a good indication of the workload that is expected of you. If you are not sure about the workload you are taking this semester, add up the total ECTS and divide them by the weeks in a semester. If you get more than 40 hours a week, you should rethink your strategy. Most study programmes, including EUS, will give you quite detailed advice on which courses to pick and when to complete them.

● Grades and transcripts

To check your grades, log in in to your PLUSonline account and click on “My grades” in the category “Achievements and Examinations”. If you need a transcript (e.g. for insurance and visa purposes), click the button “Transcripts” under “Study Support”. You can print a report/certificate for each individual course in “My grades” or cumulative transcripts in “Transcripts”.

If you need help finding the right kind of transcript or other documents for your purpose, do not hesitate to ask for help from your student assistants, student representatives or the International Office.

● Email

Receiving mail

You need to check your email account regularly. On this account you will receive notifications about your courses, messages from your professors, news from the university and other information concerning your studies such as grades for courses. Do not ignore emails from PLUSonline! Rooms can be changed and course times rescheduled, so pay attention closely!

Sending mail

When you write emails, please write them cordially and respectfully. Also include an appropriate greeting. Your email may look like this, for example:

“Dear Prof./ Ms./ Mr. Mustermann,

*I would like to schedule a consultation concerning my upcoming master thesis.
Can you offer me an appointment?*

Best Regards/Kind Regards,

John Doe”

- Blackboard

Blackboard (or eLearning) is the platform which most of your course materials will be uploaded to. Lecturers may also use it to provide support to their students. You can access Blackboard through the website of the university or through the PLUS-Login SSO portal (see “PLUS-Login and PLUSonline”).

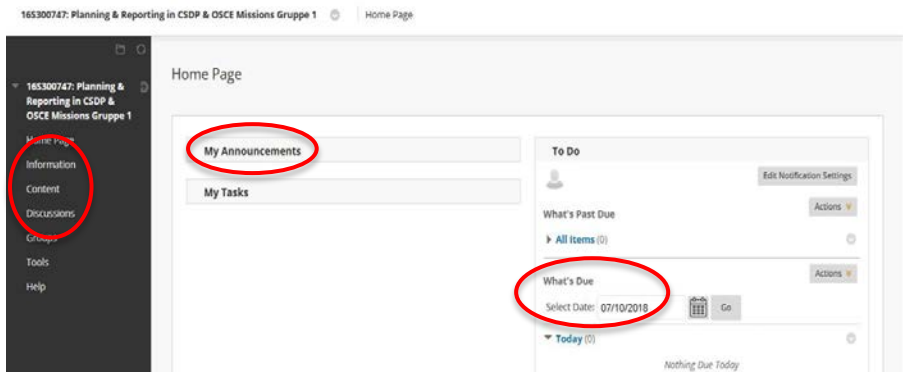

You must enter your user number (s0000000) and your password to log into Blackboard. If a Blackboard course has been set up for the course you registered for in PLUSonline (which will be the case for most, but not all), you will be automatically registered for the course on Blackboard (or will be by the next day at the latest)

Blackboard offers many functions, and we advise you to familiarise yourself with the system. If you are registered for a course, you can access it by clicking on it. Among other things, on Blackboard you can...

- ...upload assignments (“What’s Due”)
- ...use and download learning materials, literature provided by the lecturer (“Information” and “Content”).
- ...communicate with other students over a specifically created forum. (“Discussions”)
- ...receive important announcements („My Announcements“)

- Eduroam (Education Roaming)

„Eduroam“ is a secure, world-wide roaming access service. It allows students, researchers, and staff to obtain internet connectivity across the campus. We have created an easy-to-use tutorial on how to access Eduroam:

➤ Eduroam Tutorial

- Important information on the university page

Departments of the university make important information and documents available on their websites. SCEUS will inform you about exams, the curriculum, and how to finish your MA programme. You can also find the EUS Study Guide and the Euroam Tutorial there. This information is crucial to your successful completion of the programme!

- Facebook and Instagram

If you use Facebook or Instagram, be aware that many departments of the university use social media too, including SCEUS. We use it regularly to share recent news and important information. You can also use our Linktree to find our websites.

- Salzburg Centre of European Union Studies on Facebook
- Salzburg Centre of European Union Studies on Instagram

Library

Whenever you need literature (books, journal articles, etc.) not provided in the courses themselves, please check our university libraries. Almost all the required material can be found and borrowed (or copied, scanned) there for free.

● Libraries and opening hours

➤ Opening Hours

Most important libraries for SCEUS students:

- 1) Main Library (HB Hauptbibliothek, Hofstallgasse 2-4)
- 2) Social Sciences (FB Gesellschaftswissenschaften, Rudolfskai, Basteigasse 1)
- 3) Law and Economics (FB Rechtswissenschaften, Toskanatrakt, Sigmund-Haffner-Gasse 13 & Firmian-Salm-Haus, Kapitelgasse 5)

➤ Service and Contact

(We recommend that you use the online search engines first to make sure you find what you are looking for!)

- Essentials to lending

Search for a book online or in the respective libraries

1) Log into your university account (see below) and make sure you are also logged into your library account. Usually this happens automatically; otherwise, just log in with your user number (s000000) and password.

2) Order/Request the book (Bestellen/Vormerken) - You will receive a confirmation by email

TYPE	LOAN POLICY	DESCRIPTION	STATUS
Book	30 Days Loan		Item in place

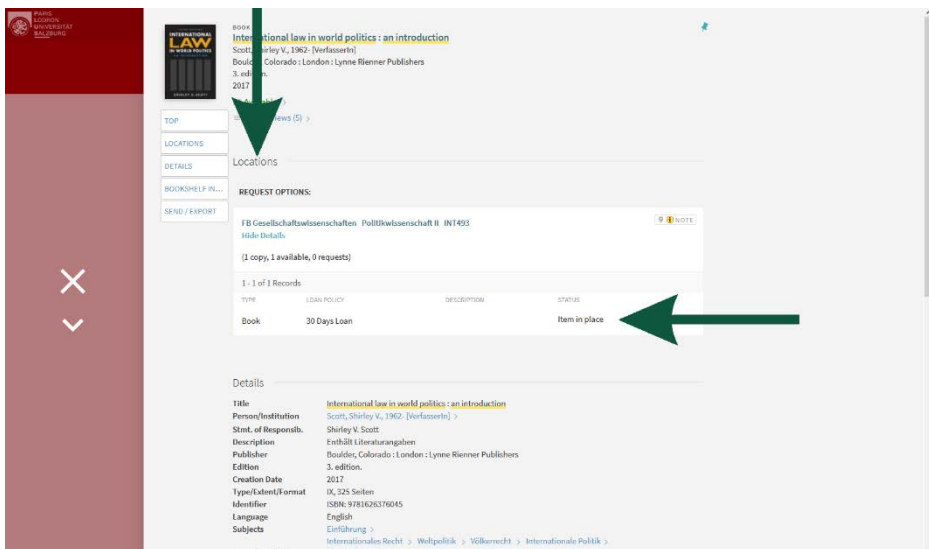

Below the table, there is a 'Details' section with fields for Title, Person/Institution, Strit. of Responsib., Description, and Related Titles.

3) Go to the respective library (details provided in the email) and receive your book at the counter

Example: Search for “International Law in World Politics: An introduction”. Sadly, only an older version is available. Click on the older version. Click on “Locations/Order/Hold request” and you can see where the book is located. This book is located in “FB Gesellschaftswissenschaften”. It is especially important to know where the book is, so you don’t have to walk there twice.

Alternatively, you can always go to the library first, browse through the shelves yourself and then borrow any book available for lending. Sometimes there are dedicated reserve shelves for some courses which hold books that cannot be lent. You can, however, scan or copy them and then return them to the shelf.

Search for a journal article online, at our campus or at home

Most important search engines

- UB:Search offers access to the complete collection of the University Library of Salzburg (including many free and licensed electronic resources)
- DBIS provides an index of all scientific and scholarly databases accessible online
- Electronic Journals Library is a useful catalogue of e-journals

Important: We recommend that you participate in one of the many UB courses that are offered by the library to get a good understanding of the system.

External access to our online services (VPN)

Students at the University of Salzburg are entitled to off-campus access to licensed, full-text electronic resources of the University Library (e-journals, e-books, and databases).

Note: VPN access only allows the secure use of restricted university or library services. Unrestricted web browsing or connecting to internal university services (e.g. network shares) is not possible.

- Off-Campus Access
- Guide and help (Only in German)

Fees and Charging

As already mentioned, all the aforementioned services are free for students. However, if you want to print something or forget to return items in time, a small service fee will be charged.

- University Sport Institute (USI)

If you want to do sports programmes alongside your studies, the university offers a wide range of different courses and facilities (including a gym) at a very low price. There is a special registration day (window) before the start of every semester, where you can register for the courses. At first, you have to register in order to get a MYUSI account/password. Write to usi@sbg.ac.at for that purpose.

2) ESSENTIALS TO LIVING

Important Contacts

First of all, we highly advise you to visit the info website hosted by OeAD, the Austrian Agency for International Mobility and Cooperation in Education, Science and Research.

www.studyinaustria.at

- Ministry (www.bmeia.gv.at/en)

If you have questions regarding your Passport, Visa, or other inquiries about your stay in Austria, you can contact the Austrian Foreign Ministry. Available under:

- Contact Form
- General Information on your stay in Austria

- City Magistrate (www.stadt-salzburg.at)

If you have any questions concerning the city of Salzburg itself:

- Residence registration office

Important information for students from third (non-EU) countries (highly recommended) can be found here as well:

- Students from third countries

- Student housing

Some general information on student housing in Salzburg:

- plus.ac.at > The PLUS > Administration and Services > International Relations Department > International Relations Office > International Life > Living in Salzburg

The ÖH Salzburg has created a list of all student homes:

➤ www.oeh-salzburg.at/beratung/studierendenheime

Generally, the average price of a single student room is about 350 – 450€. Double rooms are usually cheaper (per person). Most rooms include a bathroom and a small kitchen space.

- Salzburger Verkehrsverbund (Salzburg Public Transport)

The Salzburger Verkehrsverbund (SVV) is responsible for public transport – predominantly by bus – in Salzburg. Consult the SVV to find out which bus you need to take and which ticket is best for you. Generally, there is a student ticket available, which is highly recommended if you plan to use public transport in Salzburg. For more information, please visit their website.

➤ www.salzburg-verkehr.at

- Trains in Austria

There are two train companies in Austria. Firstly, there is the public transport network of the Austrian Federal Railways (ÖBB). The ÖBB offers train connections throughout Austria. We therefore advise you to make yourself familiar with their website (www.oebb.at). The ÖBB also offers the so-called “ÖBB Vorteilscard”, which halves the price of every ticket. If you plan to travel by train regularly, we recommend that you invest in the Vorteilscard. Especially if you want to travel greater distances (e.g. to Vienna, Graz, Innsbruck etc.), it is worth buying, even for only a few trips. If you want to travel only to Vienna or other cities along the way (e.g. Linz), there is an alternative private company called “Westbahn” which offers tickets at a competitive price without the need to commit to a Vorteilscard.

As mentioned before, “Westbahn” is the second train company in Austria. This service operates only between Vienna and Salzburg, offering slightly cheaper tickets than the ÖBB. Please keep in mind: Tickets from ÖBB are not valid in Westbahn, and tickets from Westbahn are not valid in ÖBB trains (unless specifically declared as such during major infrastructure repairs and/or service disruptions)

➤ www.oebb.at/en

➤ www.westbahn.at/en

Living in Austria

- Language

Austria is a German speaking country and most of the Austrian people can speak basic English. Especially in the very touristic Salzburg, you should have no problems getting by with the English Language. However, many older people do not speak any language besides German, therefore it would be to your advantage to know a few German words. It also shows a great deal of respect towards the Austrian culture and makes everyday communication much easier.

German language courses

We highly recommend that you take a German course. Not only will it help you make life in Salzburg easier, but it will also enhance your international qualifications. Usually you can even have language courses completed at the university recognized as elective courses towards the completion of your degree.

Key Words

Important Events

- Academic calendar

Check our academic calendar for all important events regarding our University as well as public holidays or days on which no lectures are held.

- plus.ac.at > Studies > Aspiring students > Important dates and deadlines

- Orientation days

Annually, the university organizes an orientation day that offers a comprehensive introduction to many study-related issues.

➤ Orientation Day

Important: The SCEUS STV also hosts Welcome Days at the beginning of the term. We invite all SCEUS students to attend and make yourself familiar with the programme, your colleagues and the STV!

- Erasmus events

If you intend to meet more international students, try to get into contact with ERASMUS and other exchange students at our university. While there are events hosted for those students exclusively, it is usually not a problem to join their activities outside the university (e.g. pub tour through Salzburg etc.)

➤ Events hosted by the Office of International Relations

- SCEUS Summer Party

Every summer semester (usually in May or June) the institution as well as the STV (student representation) host a semester closing party where we have barbecue together, offer free drinks and have a lot of fun!
