

The Departments of Philosophy & Political Science at the Faculty of Cultural & Social Sciences (KGW) of the University of Salzburg cordially invite you to the Roundtable Discussion on

The Political Limits of Academic Freedom on Wed., 15.12.2021 at 11.15-12.45 (online) with

Prof. Andrea Pető (Central European University)
& Prof. Laura Horn (Roskilde University)

Welcome: Prof. Martin Knoll, European Regional History & Dean of Faculty of Cultural & Social Sciences (KGW)

Moderation: Prof. Alexander Hieke, Philosophy & Prof. Zoe Lefkofridi, Political Science

Prof. Andrea Pető is a historian and a Professor at the Department of Gender Studies at Central European University, Vienna, Austria, a Research Affiliate of the CEU Democracy Institute, Budapest, and a Doctor of Science of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. Her works on gender, politics, Holocaust, and war have been translated into 23 languages. In 2018 she was awarded the 2018 All European Academies (ALLEA) Madame de Staël Prize for Cultural Values. She is Doctor Honoris Causa of Södertörn University, Stockholm, Sweden. Recent publications include: The Women of the Arrow Cross Party. Invisible Hungarian Perpetrators in the Second World War. Palgrave, Macmillan, 2020. And Forgotten Massacre: Budapest 1944. DeGruyter, 2021. She writes op-ed pieces for many international and national media.

Prof. Laura Horn is a political economist at Roskilde University. Her main research area is Global Political Economy, with particular attention to the regional manifestation of these structures and processes in the context of Europe and European integration. She is interested in the changing nature of capitalist restructuring and how these developments affect social power relations. Empirically, her work has analysed the regulation of corporate governance and corporate accountability in the EU and beyond; the nature of the emerging European state formation; the question of which role organized labour can play in the (re)formulation of economic and social policies at the EU level, as well as a broader examination of left strategies and alternatives in the context of the challenges posed by the financial, economic, social and environmental crisis.
