

The Department of Political Science at the University of Salzburg solicits applications for a postdoc/university assistant position in the field of international politics.

The department is highly research active and ranked among the top 100 political science departments worldwide. A sustained process of internationalization through the recruitment of faculty from top institutions in Europe and North America and a clear focus on excellence in research have become distinctive features.

The key features of the advertised position are as follows:

- Planned start of employment: 1 October 2023
- Duration of employment: 5 years
- Employment level in hours per week: 40
- Working time: by arrangement
- Employment requirement: doctoral degree in political science
- Areas of responsibility: academic research including publishing in international journals; academic support in research and teaching as well as participation in administrative tasks in the field of international politics; independent teaching of four hours per week per semester
- Desired additional qualifications: ability to connect well to the research carried out within the field of International Politics at the University of Salzburg as well as excellent methods skills
- Desired personal characteristics: ability to work in a team, reliability, high level of commitment and ability to work under pressure

The full, legally binding call for applications (in German) including the salary can be found here:

Wissenschaftliches Universitätspersonal - Paris Lodron Universität Salzburg \(plus.ac.at\)

For additional information, please contact Prof. Andreas Dür (Andreas.Duer@plus.ac.at).

Please send your application, comprising a cover letter and a full CV, under indication of the reference number GZ A 0057/1-2023 to: bewerbung@plus.ac.at.

Application deadline 3 May 2023