Students can take courses at max. 2 departments. Nominated students will be required to select at least 75% (22.5 hp) of their classes in the department in which they are nominated; where possible students will be permitted to select 25% of their classes at another department.
 No course guarantee: CIVIS exchange students will be admitted to Stockholm University, but their course selection cannot be guaranteed. Course admission will be decided by the respective department, based on the student's academic background and course availability.
 Students must deliver the Erasmus "Online Linguistic Support (OLS)" exam result or hand in another official language certificate.* Some departments require a language certificate (see "language requirements").
 Housing cannot be guaranteed, but CIVIS-students will be prioritized.

Conditions valid for all faculties:

*PhD students may take courses on second cycle. Some departments may offer courses on third cycle. Please contact the respective departmental coordinator for more information
 Please note: Because of administrative reasons, phd-students can only apply for Erasmus studies by taking courses (30 credits).
