④ Admission

Requirements for Japanese Language

Candidates must satisfy either of the following requirements in principle;

- ① To have studied Japanese for 2 years or more before coming to Gakushuin
- ② To have passed the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) Level N4 or to have the equivalent ability

④ Admission

Requirements for those who wish to study in Faculty of International Social Sciences

Candidates must satisfy following A and B

A be majoring in social sciences including, but not limited to, Law, Economics, Business, Sociology, and Area Studies at your home university.

B In addition to Japanese language ability, those who

- ① be native speakers of English,
- ② enrolled in a partner university where English is the major language of instruction,
- ③ have the proficiency equivalent to 80 on the TOEFL iBT or 6.0 on the IELTS

④ Admission

If you don't satisfy with Japanese Language requirement, we have a following option to fulfill it.

Japanese Language Preparatory Course(JLPC) offered by Gakushuin University's International Centre aims to prepare incoming exchange students from its overseas partner universities for their study at Gakushuin starting in September.

This program is designed for potential exchange students whose home universities offer no Japanese classes or who have not reached the Japanese proficiency level Gakushuin requires for exchange students.

Comments from a Salzburg student who experienced exchange

Studying at Gakushuin University has been a truly fantastic time filled with great memories that I will treasure.

I have met many people in my classes and at the International Centre. If I were to describe them in one word, it would be supportive. Wherever you are at Gakushuin University, there are always kind people willing to help you with an open mind, which quickly made me realise that I was not on my own in a foreign country, but rather sharing this unique and wonderful experience with many other people.

I am beyond grateful and glad to have had the opportunity to learn, laugh and make friends at Gakushuin University.
