

PARIS
LODRON
UNIVERSITÄT
SALZBURG

Systematische Theologie

© ptabay

Dr. Edward Kessler

CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

KEY MOMENTS IN THE HISTORY OF JEWISH-CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

Mi, 11. Juni | 18-19.30 Uhr | HS 107

Publikationen (Auswahl)

A Documentary History of Jewish-Christian Relations: From Antiquity to the Present-Day, CUP: 2024.

Jesus, The History Press: 2016.

Jews, Christian and Muslims, SCM: 2013.

Introduction to Jewish-Christian Relations, CUP: 2010.

Challenges in Jewish-Christian Relations, eds. J. Aitken & E. Kessler, Paulist Press: 2006.

What do Jews Believe?, Granta Publication: 2006.

(c) Woolf Institute

Dr. Edward Kessler MBE

Theologe und Experte
im interreligiösen Dialog

Gründer und Präsident
des „Woolf Institute“ (Cambridge)

Seelisberg Preisträger 2024

I will reflect on four themes to explore challenges and opportunities in the mutually entangled and often difficult history of Jewish-Christian relations: the Bible and its interpretation, Polemic and anti-Jewish violence, Land (and, later, the State) of Israel, Dialogue. These four themes, sometimes in combination or prominent at different historical moments, provide a lens through which to understand relations, right up to the present day and represent both challenges and opportunities.

PARIS
LODRON
UNIVERSITÄT
SALZBURG

Systematische Theologie

© pixabay

Challenges and opportunities

Key moments in the history of Jewish-Christian relation

11. Juni, 18-19.30 Uhr | HS 107

Publikationen (Auswahl)

A Documentary History of Jewish-Christian Relations: From Antiquity to the Present-Day, CUP: 2024.

Jesus, The History Press: 2016.

Jews, Christian and Muslims, SCM: 2013.

Introduction to Jewish-Christian Relations, CUP: 2010.

Challenges in Jewish-Christian Relations, eds. J. Aitken & E. Kessler, Paulist Press: 2006.

What do Jews Believe?, Granta Publication: 2006.

Dr. Edward Kessler MBE

Theologe und Experte
im interreligiösen Dialog

Gründer und Präsident
des „Woolf Institute“ (Cambridge)

Seelisberg Preisträger 2024

I will reflect on four themes to explore challenges and opportunities in the mutually entangled and often difficult history of Jewish-Christian relations: the Bible and its interpretation, Polemic and anti-Jewish violence, Land (and, later, the State) of Israel, Dialogue. These four themes, sometimes in combination or prominent at different historical moments, provide a lens through which to understand relations, right up to the present day and represent both challenges and opportunities.

PARIS
LODRON
UNIVERSITÄT
SALZBURG

Systematische Theologie

CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

KEY MOMENTS IN THE HISTORY OF JEWISH-CHRISTIAN RELATION

11. Juni | 18-19.30 Uhr | HS 107