

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

DIGNITY IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Picture: (c) Pixabay

Universitätsplatz 1
Hall 104 & 107

June 17th – 18th

In an era where digitalization permeates every aspect of our lives, the concept of dignity is being redefined and challenged in unprecedented ways. This conference seeks to explore the multifaceted relationship between digitalization and dignity, addressing the challenges that technological advancements pose, for example, to our fundamental rights, privacy, and sense of self-worth.

Scan me to view
full program

Speakers:

Marcel Becker (Radboud University)

Adrienne de Ruiter (University of Humanistic Studies)

Jaja Ibifuro (University of Erlangen-Nürnberg)

Nicole Ramsoomair (Dalhouse University)

Dina Babushkina (University of Twente)

Anamaria Malešević (Catholic University of Croatia)

Anto Čartolovni (Catholic University of Croatia)

Joel Bock (Old Dominion University)

Sebastian Orlander (Keele University)

Avigail Ferdman (Israel Institute of Technology)

Shulamit Almog (University of Haifa)