

DR. ASTRID REISINGER CORACINI

Austrian Candidate for Election to the International Humanitarian Fact-Finding Commission (IHFFC)

“ Advancing Humanitarian Law through Expertise, Integrity and Impartiality ”

An Excellent Candidate

Dr. Astrid Reisinger Coracini is an internationally recognised expert in international humanitarian law and international criminal law whose career combines academic excellence with practical engagement in the formation and implementation of international law.

For more than two decades, she has contributed to the development and application of international legal norms through research, teaching, advisory work for States and civil society organisations, and participation in multilateral processes.

Her professional experience spans academia, diplomacy and litigation, providing her with a comprehensive understanding of the legal and practical challenges arising in situations of armed conflict.

International Expertise

Senior Scientist in Public International Law at the University of Salzburg

Widely published author and frequent speaker on international humanitarian law and international criminal law

Member of the Austrian delegation to the Assembly of States Parties of the International Criminal Court since 2012

Former Member of the Committee for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict

Member of the Austrian National Committee for the Implementation of International Humanitarian Law

International legal consultant advising on accountability processes, fact finding, and victims' representation in international crimes cases

What do I stand for?

The role of the IHFFC as a trusted, independent fact-finding body in situations of armed conflict has to be strengthened. I want to contribute my expertise in international law, impartiality and strong commitment to humanitarian principles in this endeavour.

Connect on LinkedIn